48 Hours	48 Hours Investigates: "Missing Molly" – report on the unsolved abduction and subsequent murder of 16 yr. old Molly Bish. Bish disappeared in June 2000 from the local swimming hole where she had just started a summer job as a lifeguard in her hometown of Warren, MA. In May 2003, Tim McGuigan, a former police officer helped to discover evidence that led to the discovery of Molly's body. His interest in the case traced back to the 1993 abduction of another local girl, Holly Piirainen, who was 10 years old when she was taken from a country road in Sturbridge, MA, roughly 10 miles from the pond where Molly disappeared. Holly's body was found several weeks after her abduction, but no arrests were ever made. McGuigan became obsessed with the Piirainen murder case and increasingly began to focus on the similarities between the case and the Bish disappearance. Three and a half years after Molly Bish's disappearance, police are still investigating the case. Tim McGuigan is trying to restart his career as a police officer, and John and Magi Bish have been speaking to police across the country, hoping to improve the way they handle missing child cases.	12/03/03 9:00pm 60 minutes
48 Hours	"The Bookie's Wife" – Bob Angleton; a successful Houston, Texas bookie and confidential police informant was arrested for the April 1997 murder of his wife, Doris. illegal dealings, had plotted her murder with the help of his brother Roger. Before Roger could testify he committed suicide leaving a note claiming that he was the killer. Bob Angleton was tried in state court and acquitted. The broadcast also examines the issue of freedom of the press guaranteed by the First Amendment of the Constitution, focusing on Vanessa Leggett, a 33 yr. old aspiring true-crime writer working on a book about the Angleton murder. Leggett was jailed for 168 days on charges of contempt of court for refusing to turn over to prosecutors tapes of interviews with confidential sources. Although one federal grand jury failed to indict Bob Angleton he could face another investigation.
